Respect

One of our three new values is Respect. How can we show respect at school?

1. Show gratitude.
   Show respect by saying thanks. Even if there's not an obvious occasion for thanks, showing it regularly will mean a lot to people. This includes:
   - Parents
   - Siblings
   - Classmates
   - Friends
   - Teachers
   - Neighbors

2. Compliment the achievements of others.
   - When others are successful, draw attention to it and celebrate their ability and their achievement. Take them aside and do it in private, so your compliments will seem genuine.
   - Instead of making your first reaction, "Why didn't that happen to me?" try saying "That's so great for them!" A positive attitude goes a long way.
   - Make an extra effort to compliment those who might be struggling to achieve. Try focusing on their effort, attitude, or other positive attributes.

3. Be sincere.
   While it’s important to thank people and praise others, most people don't usually respect brown-nosing. Be genuine in your thanks and in showing your respect to other people's effort. Speak from the heart.
   - Even something as simple as "It's always good to see you" can mean a lot and show lots of respect.

4. Do what you say you'll do...
   Being reliable shows respect for people’s time. Respect other people's efforts by being on time, being prepared, and being enthusiastic.
   - Always come to school, or sports practice ready to go. Have your materials in order and complete all the necessary work ahead of time. You'll show respect for others by not wasting their time.

Long Weekend

I trust that everyone enjoyed their long weekend and the horse race that went with it. The term is certainly flying by. Please make sure that you keep up to date on Tiqbiz, Facebook and the newsletter.

School Fundraiser

Only 4 weeks until the Christmas Fundraiser. Your efforts in selling the tickets to enter the draw are much appreciated. We hope to purchase a class set of computers for our school with the money raised. All money raised will be put towards computers.

Orange for Orangutans

On Monday 7th November we will be encouraging all students and staff to wear orange to raise awareness of the “Don’t Palm Us Off” campaign. No donation is required.

Remembrance Day

We have poppies for sale in the school office for Remembrance Day.

Crazy Camel Fundraising

Once again we will be taking part in the Crazy Camel Fundraiser where you will be able to purchase calendars, cards and other items with your child’s artwork on them. Look out for the order forms coming home in the next couple of weeks.
Happy Birthday

We would like to wish Happy Birthday to Milla Robson, Kate Bonar and Cameron Watters and to any members of our community who are celebrating their special day.

Have a great weekend,

Russel Cowan

All dates were correct at the time of going to print however they may be subject to change.
On Monday 7th November wear Orange for Orangutans.

All students and staff are encouraged to wear orange on Monday 7th November to raise awareness of the orangutans plight.

Food manufacturers are still allowed to include palm oil as a vegetable oil on their labels. By buying these products you may be contributing to the deaths of over 1,000 orangutans a year as their habitat is destroyed through unsustainable palm oil production.

On November 25 selected ministers will meet to vote whether Australia and New Zealand will label palm oil on food products.

If you would like to find out how to tell these Ministers that you want them to vote “Yes” go to:
